

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Police on Guard is honoured to support and stand with Canada Unity and the trucker's convoy to Ottawa. Canada Unity and Police on Guard formed a partnership prior to the Unity One convoy last fall and have continued building on their relationships in bringing Canadians together without the divisiveness we see today.

Members of Police on Guard are so excited to meet and greet all the convoy participants with the Bear Hug 2.0. We ask that everyone remember this is peaceful convoy and to spread the positive Canadian spirit with Canada Unity's Bear Hugs.

Police on Guard is honoured to have been asked to speak at the rally in support of Canada Unity regarding our Charter of Rights and Freedoms which is enshrined in the Constitution Act of 1982. Police on Guard will continue to support both the Honourable A. Brian Peckford, the last living signatory of the Charter and Constitution. Further Police on Guard continues to support Mr. Rocco Galati from the Constitutional Rights Centre.

Members of Police on Guard have always and will always continue to support the values and freedoms as set forth by our Charter of Rights and Freedoms.
